YOUR PRIVATE TERMINAL

Private flights at Dublin Airport are normally handled through the private-aviation passengers use the FBO terminals rather than the main passenger terminals, serving Dublin. Where there is a private lounge, your car drops you at the door and the crew meet you there. At some airports, and whenever border control requires it, passengers go through the main terminal instead — we tell you exactly where to go before you travel.

There is no airline-style check-in. Customs and immigration are available here for international flights; where they are carried out is confirmed for your flight. The airport notes periodic closures of runway 10R/28L roughly every 8 weeks; minimum handling is mandatory for aircraft under 2 tonnes. Weston (EIWT) is the nearby light-aircraft airfield but is restricted to private use.
